

About RTI

RTI International is an independent, nonprofit research institute dedicated to improving the human condition. Our vision is to address the world’s most critical problems with science-based solutions in pursuit of a better future. Clients rely on us to answer questions that demand an objective and multidisciplinary approach—one that integrates expertise across the social and laboratory sciences, engineering, and international development.

We conduct research and deliver technical services on behalf of government agencies, universities, foundations, private businesses, and other organizations. We serve clients around the world, with a science-based approach to projects of all sizes—from focused studies and applied R&D to large-scale national and international longitudinal research efforts.

RTI provides the multidisciplinary expertise and research insights our clients need to inform policy, practice, and programs through various practice areas:

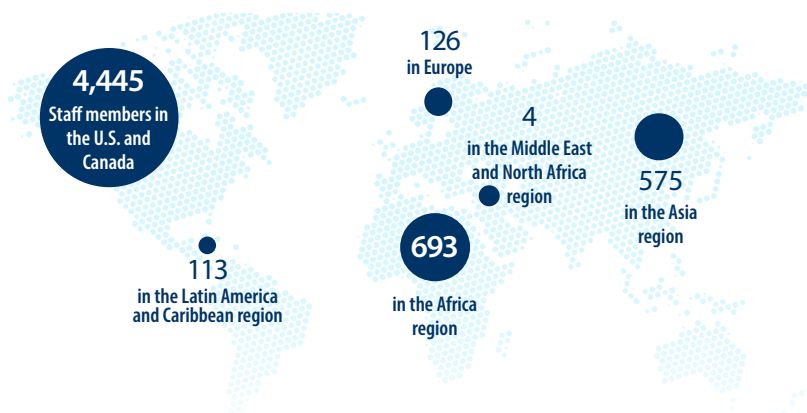

- Health
- Equity
- International Development
- Education and Workforce Development
- Climate, Energy, and Environmental Science
- Justice Research and Policy
- Economics and Innovation
- Military Support
- Food Security and Agriculture
